

Nome e cognome

Usa le parole per scrivere frasi con must o mustn't.

you / not send text messages in class

You mustn't send text messages in class.

- 1 everybody / be at school by 8 a.m.
- 2 you / not write on your desks at school
- 3 students / not eat or drink near the computers
- 4 I / do this homework today
- 5 you / not be late for school

Cerchia l'alternativa corretta.

I've got something / anything in my eye.

- 1 I can't see Lily somewhere / anywhere.
- 2 Does somebody / anybody want to play tennis?
- 3 Paul brought you something / anything from Italy.
- 4 Is there something / anything nice for dinner?
- 5 I met someone / anyone interesting yesterday.

Completa i composti con any o no.

There's nobody in the shop.

- 1 Has ___body got a dictionary?
- 2 I haven't got ___thing to read.
- 3 I'm hungry and there's ___thing to eat!
- 4 Tim is ___where in the park.
- 5 There isn't ___where for teenagers to go in my town.
- 6 ___body went to choir last week.

Cerchia l'errore in ogni frase. Poi riscrivi la frase correttamente.

I didn't see nobody in the park.

I didn't see anybody in the park.

- 1 Is somebody at home at the moment?
- 2 I don't like nothing on this CD.
- 3 Everyone are at school today.
- 4 Oh no! I've got anything to wear today!
- 5 I didn't go somewhere last Sunday.